MOUNT NANSEN
REMEDIATION LP

JOB OPPORTUNITY

Labourer / Operator-in-Training
Mount Nansen Mine Site (near Carmacks, YT)
Duration: Short term, 1-month
Start Date: April 18, 2024
On-Site accommodations, per diems or catering, and mileage provided

About the Role
Reporting to the Site Supervisor, the Labourer / Operator-In-Training will be responsible for supporting the operations of the Mount Nansen Water Treatment Plant and perform general site care and maintenance work.

Key Responsibilities
- Learn to operate a Water Treatment Plant through on-the-job training led by Lead Water Treatment Plant Operator.
- Support plant process improvement maintenance activities.
- Support general care and maintenance activities on site including site pumps, distribution systems (water, electrical, and fuel), communication systems, buildings, and roadways.
- Support the maintenance of all on-site equipment and ensure equipment is in good and safe working order by performing regular inspections, maintenance, and repairs.
- Ensure the cleanliness/safety of the site.
- Perform general labour and small construction activities around the site.
- Conduct daily/weekly/monthly sampling, inspections and monitoring of tailings area, ponds, and water from various sources at the site.
- Take proper safety precautions, anticipate unsafe circumstances, and act accordingly to prevent accidents.
- Other duties as required.

About You
- 1-3 years of experience preferably in an industrial setting.
- Safety conscience and willing to comply with MNRLP Health & Safety Policy and practices.
- Is in good physical health, able to lift a minimum of 50 lbs, stand/bend/stoop for long periods of time, and work outdoors in all weather conditions.
- Is in possession of a current Driver's License, and able to drive to job site.
- Previous experience operating hand tools, small machinery, and other necessary equipment.

How to Apply
To apply for this role, please send your resume to bev.brown@lscfn.ca or drop them off at the LSCFN office. Application deadline is April 17, 2024.